

Agricultural Research, Education & Extension Organization
Agricultural Education and Extension Institute

Experiences from Institute of Agricultural Education and Extension in line with HLP

HLP Convention
12-14 September- 2023

Ataollah.Ebrahimi@sku.ac.ir

Aims and objectives

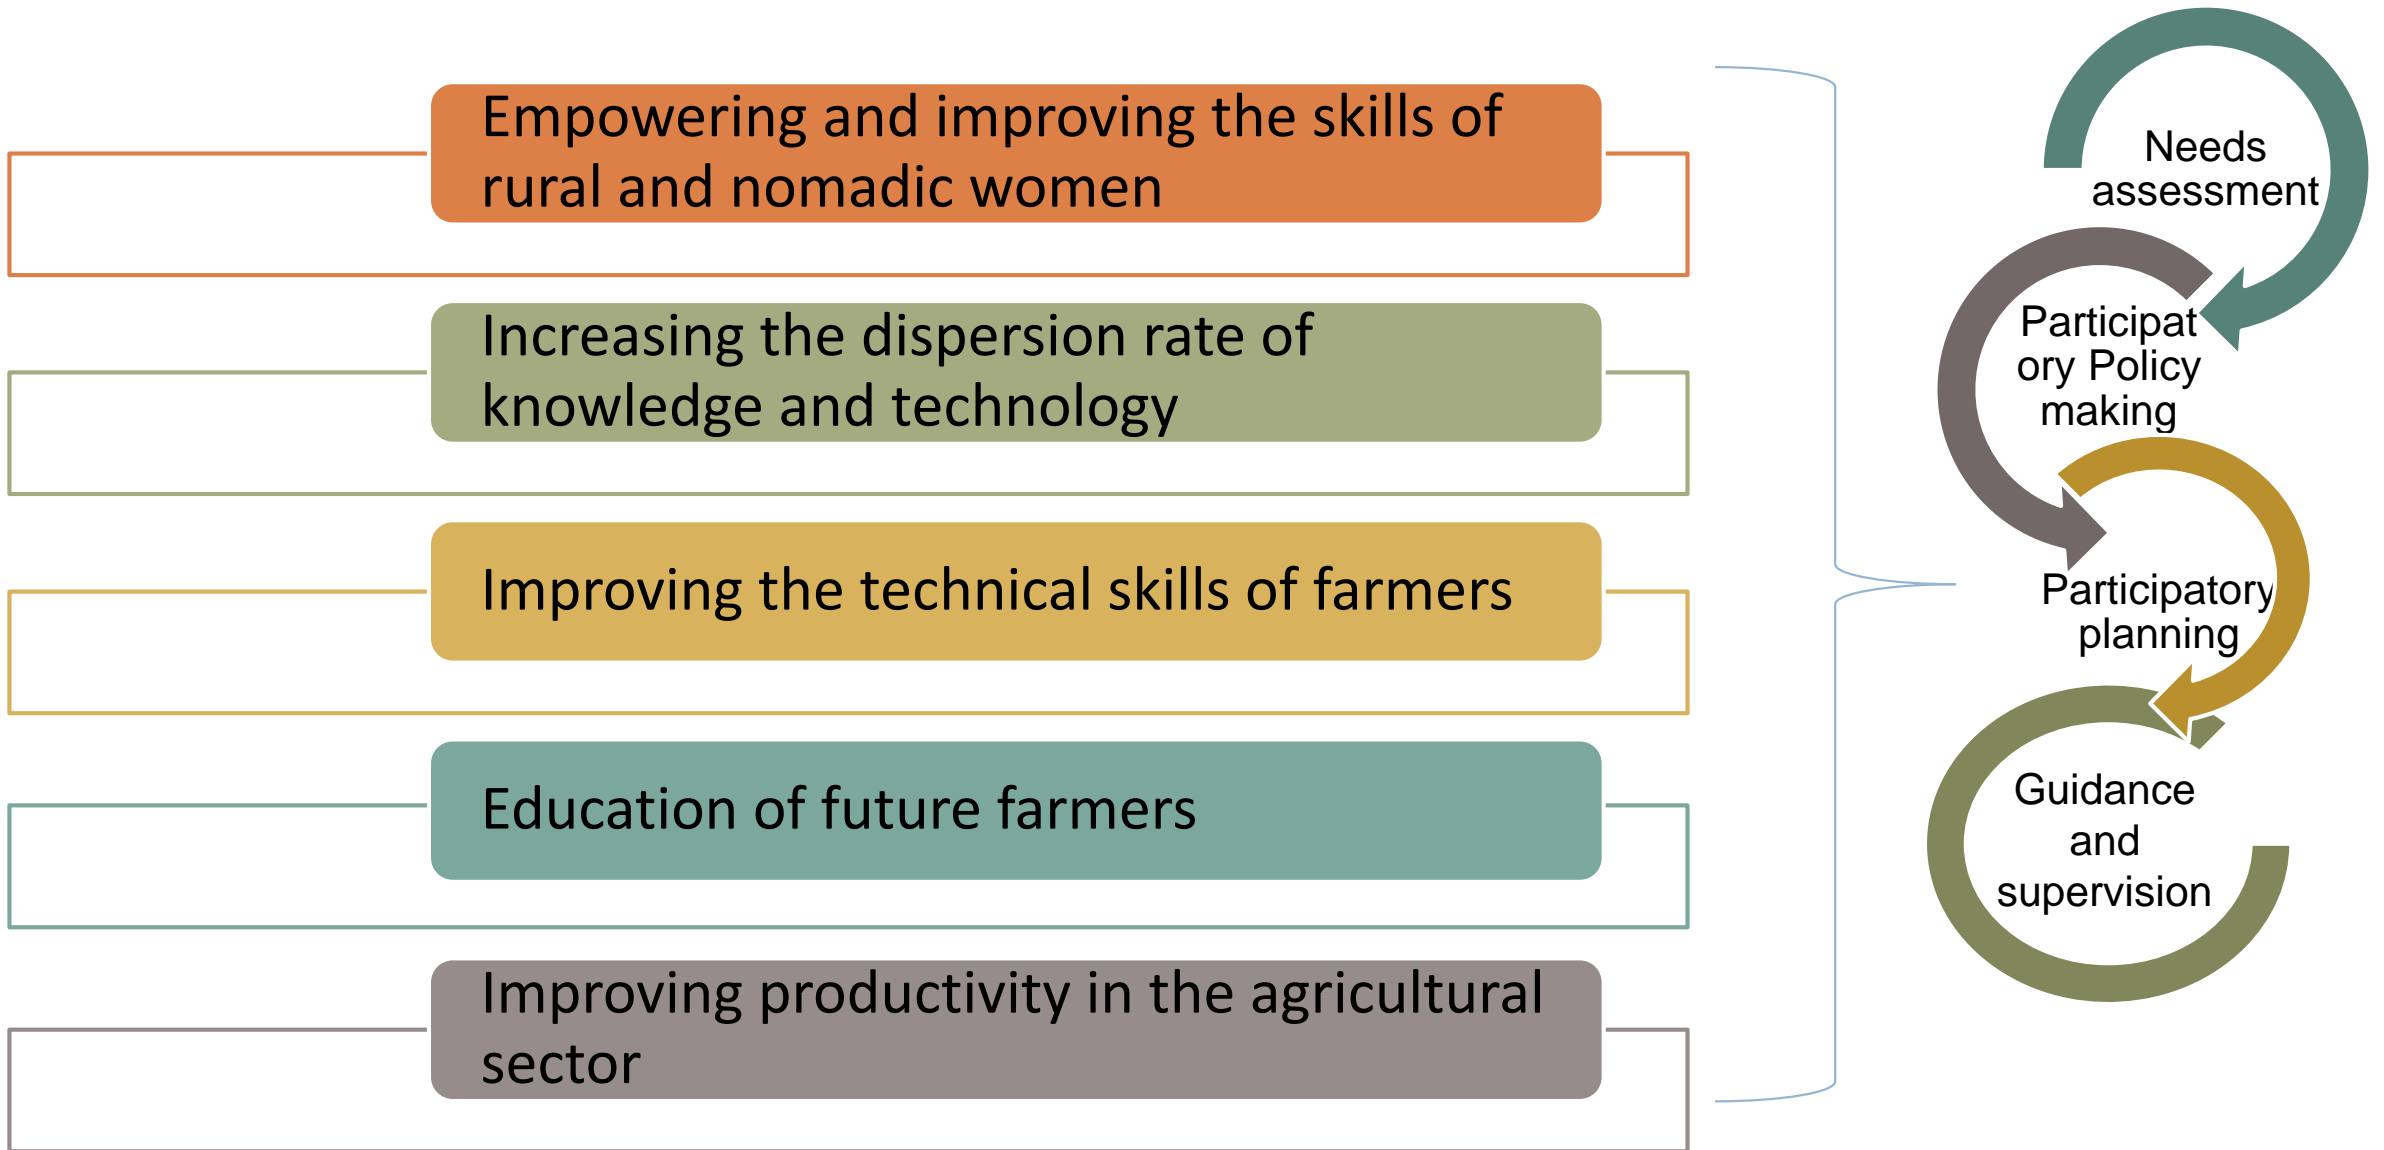

- Development of human resources and social capital of agricultural sector
- Spreading of Knowledge, successful experiences and technology

Perspective and outlook

- Achieving sustainable food security
- Strengthening and diversifying agricultural systems in line with sustainable agriculture
- Increasing the productivity and quality of agricultural products

The field of activity of the deputy of agricultural education and extension

The experiences of the Institute of Education and extension in the development of human resources and social capital

Social capital

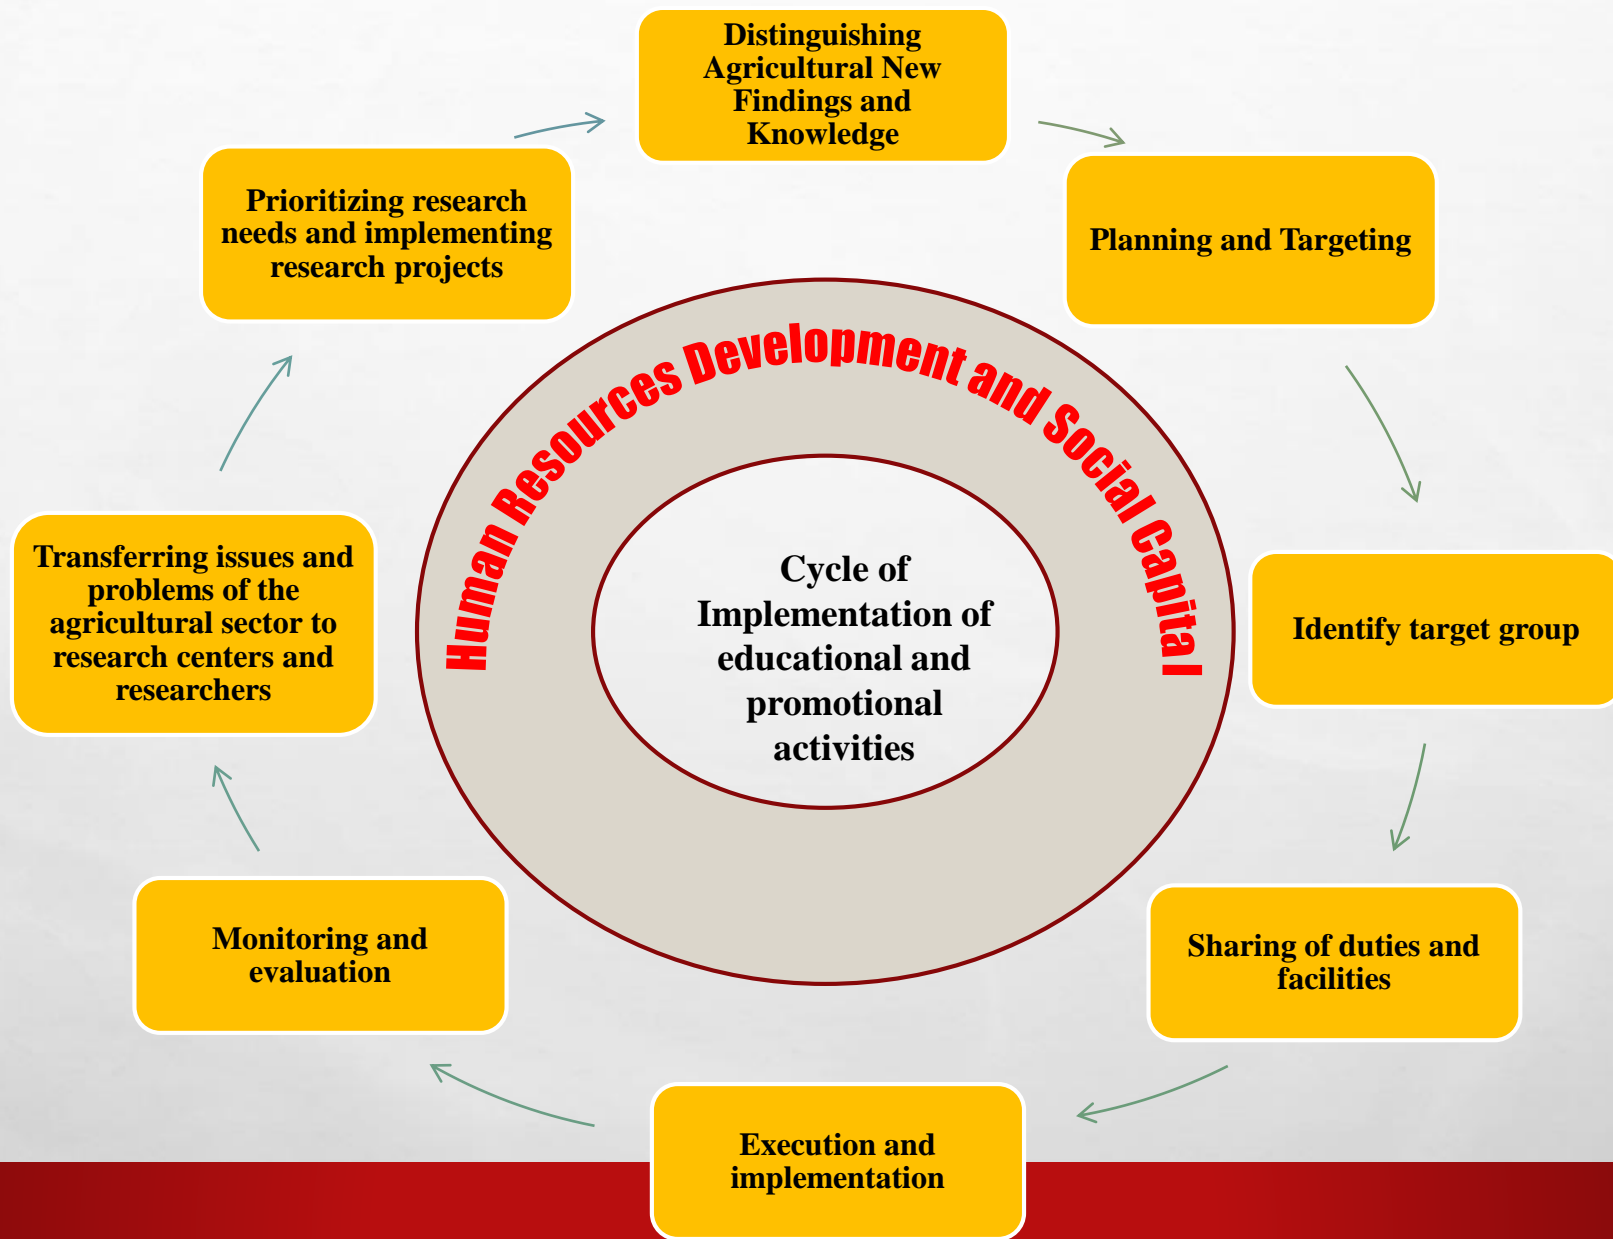

Development of agricultural knowledge network and extension of agricultural techniques human recourse development

- Creating microcredit funds for rural and nomadic women and developing county and provincial funds
- Development of the network of non-governmental extension agents (women development facilitators and extension workers)
- Establishing rural and nomadic youth clubs
- Identification and organization of elite farmers

- Managing the agricultural knowledge network using the capacity of 100 senior researchers and 1616 expert researchers
- Holding productivity extensional caravans
- Setting up a hall for the extension of agricultural knowledge and techniques

- Development and extension of technical skills in the field of:
- Training future farmers
- Skill training for those interested to agricultural activities
- Empowering rural and nomadic women

Proposal for the cooperation of the institute and the convention

- ✓ Developing joint collaborations in order to exchange experiences and findings that can be published and shared,
- ✓ Holding training workshops and face-to-face meetings to improve the skills necessary to develop horizontal learning,
- ✓ Holding periodic and continuous training workshops and virtual meetings in order to share the knowledge of member countries in the field of horizontal learning,
- ✓ Planning to carry out educational- extension visits at the level of farmers, managers and experts of member countries

A well-known researcher sharing his knowledge of branch planting of walnut to the gardeners

- Holding a productivity extensional caravans

• Empowering rural and nomadic women

Training of future farmers in the field

- Developing of the network of non-governmental extension agents (women development facilitators and extension workers)

- Increasing the dispersion rate of knowledge and technology

- Establishing rural and nomadic youth clubs

Extending Family farming is our objective

- Identification and organization of elite farmers

